

Episcopal Diocese of Southern Virginia

Ordination Exploration Process

Notice of Interest

The Notice of Interest is a required first step for those discerning a sense of call to ordained ministry. This form should be completed, signed, and submitted to the diocesan office after discussion with your rector, priest-in-charge, or the dean of your convocation, and before a formal Ordination Exploration Process is started. The purpose of this Notice of Interest is to inform and enable the timely sharing of information, especially for those who are in the earliest stages of discernment. It does not imply any status granted by the Bishop under Title III of the Canons of the Episcopal Church, nor does it imply that the person named below is in the ordination process.
